

3 important reasons you need a will

Wills often have a stigma attached to them, that only the older generation needs to put them in place and this is not true.

Any person over the age of 18 (so long as they have mental capacity) can make a will.

You can get peace of mind by planning ahead and making suitable provision about what happens to your assets when you pass away. Also knowing that your loved ones have been taken care of, and there could be Tax advantages by considering what you do under your will earlier on. Read more here...

by Leah Woodnott

Trusts

A way of managing wealth – money, investments, land or property – for you, your family, or anyone else who you'd like to benefit.

by Claire Read

Planning long term care?

This can become necessary at any age, which is why it is important to make sure that you make arrangements for someone to make decisions on your behalf.

Wills, Trusts and Probate

7 Tax year end opportunities

The last two years have been stressful and uncertain, however, it's important to ensure that you're in control of your finances as we approach the end of the 2021/2022 tax year.

by Rhyanne Sefton

Wednesday Webinars

employment law update

09 March

In case you missed it →

- Award winning campaign comes to an end
- Solicitor joins the dispute resolution team
- Self-isolation laws to end in England
- Top 3 strategies your business should consider

