

Changes at Birkett Long

This month's newsletter focuses on the changes happening at Birkett Long and the recent legal developments under the new government.

Keeping up with the changes at the pace they are going is challenging, but our solicitors pride themselves on their industry knowledge, and they frequently write about these updates in the articles that we share on social media.

You can find all of this in our News & insights section. The "In Case You Missed It" section below is the best place to start this month. Please follow us on any of the main social platforms listed at the bottom of this newsletter to stay updated as we do.

We regularly host webinars for business owners, individuals and sectors with industry leading professionals. With our new website, we are enhancing our entire digital offering. Follow us now to keep up with the merciless pace of change that is shaping 2024.

Birkett Long's website reflects the firm's commitment to service excellence. It aligns with its vision to inspire in every interaction, ensuring clients receive the best possible experience. "Our goal is to ensure every visitor, from clients to community organisations and prospective employees, finds valuable and relevant information quickly and efficiently."

Read more here.

by Sarah Humphryes

In this post-election webinar, we look at the vast changes facing us in our personal and professional lives. We have Tim Field, Head of our Commercial Team and employment solicitor Karen Morovic, deliver their expertise on the essential topics you need to know.

Access the webinar here.

by Tim Field & Karen Morovic

Birkett Long has expanded its Court of Protection and Inheritance Disputes team, strengthening its ability to support clients in complex legal matters. With experienced solicitors and dedicated staff, the team offers expert guidance on deputyships, mental capacity issues, and inheritance disputes.

Read more here.

by Lisa Cox

Birkett Long's new office in Basildon offers a spacious and inspiring environment for staff and visitors. With panoramic views and a commitment to sustainability, this move is part of the firm's growth strategy and commitment to serving the South Essex region.

Read more here.

by David Cant

- VAT on independent school fees
- The Impact of Government Changes on Capital Gains Tax
- Energy and Environment – Action or just more "hot air"?
- Labour's Vision for Housing Reform
- Employees returning to the office: The legal considerations

Birkett Long are partnering with Auditel to host a webinar on:

Assessing and calculating the carbon footprint of your product or business

26 September

4.00pm – 5.00pm